'Kiarostami At Work' is a documentary showcasing Abbas Kiarostami's boundless passion for work and creativity. The film features images captured by Seifollah Samadian during their thirty years of friendship and travels together, including behind-the-scenes footage of the films: 'Shirin' and 'Certified Copy' by late Hamideh Razavi and 'Taste of Cherry' by Bahman Kiarostami. Juliette Binoche, Martin Scorsese, and some others have shared insights into Kiarostami's creative works. Throughout more than five decades of his life, Kiarostami engaged in diverse artistic pursuits, from cinema to poetry, making him a symbol of honour for the word 'work'.
